Hi Everyone,

You may question me, distrust me, or whatever ... on what basis I ask ...or is it just time to be negative..? The internet web sight could have solved our internal communication deficit but then

On May 8, 1988 a group of artists met with me in Studio 103 and said they would do what was necessary to make The Dream of Milo come into reality - and they did. Over the years that partnership of myself & the artists here at Milo has continued to be the inspiration for much of what I do.

I am at that crossroads again -

A. I can sell, abandon this project and all it's headaches, and start anew, possibly in another city, pay off all my debts, take a year off.

B. I can ask for a sacrifice from You to match the sacrifice I have made for You.

As of today - I choose B

I am asking for a few hours from each person & each person can do something.....

If you think that after spending a year & 10's of thousands of dollars that Mr.. Solove doesn't have a plan to win - Think Again.

The people in Cleveland & in Cincinnati thought it could not happen to them, they relaxed, let their guard down & now they are no more.

Solove's plan is that You believe he doesn't have a chance - then he can, over the next year or so, wear down pockets of resistance until everyone is reconciled to the inevitable.

Your First Shot - And Only Shot - is NOW

We Win the Battle of Public Opinion Overwhelmingly & Immediately while we are the center of attention or Die a Slow Death

Sincerely,

Rick
